ABSTRACT

Indiana University offered education classes in Indianapolis starting in 1914. The IU School of Education was created in 1923. The Indianapolis campus first offered a baccalaureate degree in 1969. The IUPUI Division of Education in Indianapolis was established in 1972. In 1975 IU merged the IUPUI Division of Education and the IU School of Education in Bloomington into a single IU School of Education.

The records include correspondence, minutes, reports, accreditation files, program records, publications, merger documents, Teacher Corps records, Policy Council records, and other records of the school.

ACCESS

Personnel and student records and other personal information in these records are restricted. All other material is open to the public without restriction. Copyright laws of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) govern the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.
